

ALL IN. ALL GAME. ALL SEASON

ALL IN. ALL GAME. ALL SEASON

We are entering one of the most exciting seasons of the year: football season. It will last until Super Bowl Sunday, February 9, 2025. These next few months will return us to familiar routines, bring changing leaves, cooler weather, and also provide us with some amazing opportunities to learn, grow, and mature in our faith if our eyes and hearts are open. There are some great lessons to be learned from football. Lessons like discipline, commitment, sacrifice, teamwork, giving our best, playing to win, and many others. The best lessons we can learn come from the Word of God, and some of the most amazing ones are found in the most unexpected places. Like the life of Job. His example stands head and shoulders above almost every other Bible character, in what he experienced and how he responded to it all.

Discussion Questions:

1. What are the three major lessons we learned from the life of Job in Sunday's message? Which of those impacted you the most and why?
2. Where do you think most Christians get the idea we are supposed to live lives free from adversity? What was Job's attitude toward the incredible adversity he faced and how can we cultivate his attitude in our own lives?
3. How did Job's wife respond when she saw all the adversity her husband was experiencing? (Job 2:7-9) How should we respond when people do something similar with us?
4. According to 2 Timothy 3:16-17, what is one of the strongest motivations for us to gather together with God's people in God's house, every weekend for worship?

5. Every player on a football team has a specific assignment and role to play in every game of the season. How can we know what our assignment and role is here at Center Pointe every week and how can we do it better?

6. The season is upon us as a church and we believe it's going to be our greatest season ever. Are you reading to be ALL IN. ALL GAME - every game! ALL SEASON?
