God can help me be brave.

Bible Story

Rahab and the Spies
Joshua 2:1–24, 6:24–25

Rahab is brave and helps God's people because she believes God is powerful.

MEMORY VERSE

"Be strong and courageous. Do not be afraid . . . for the Lord your God goes with you."
Deuteronomy 31:6, NIV

Weekly Cues →

Preschool

ENGAGE IN EVERYDAY MOMENTS TOGETHER

Morning Time

When you go into your child's room, cuddle them and say: "Good morning, [child's name]! I wonder what brave things God will help us do today."

Cuddle Time

Cuddle with your child and pray: "God, You made everything! You made stars and volcanoes, oceans and animals, and all the people. That's powerful! And when I remember how powerful You are and that You are with me, I can be brave!"

Drive Time

While on the go, look for powerful things like bulldozers, airplanes, big trucks, etc. Tell your child that nothing is more powerful than God and we can be brave because God is powerful!

Bath Time

Add a toy person, bubbles, and a few washcloths to bath time. Tell your child to close their eyes or look away while you hide the toy in the bubbles, under a washcloth, or behind a shampoo bottle. Each time your child finds the toy, say: "God can help me be brave!" Talk about how Rahab was brave and hid the spies because she knew God is powerful.